

Afternoon Tea

LOBBY BAR

Healthy. Refreshing. Mythic. Tea.

There's more to brewing tea than simply mixing tea leaves in boiling water. To those who have mastered its secrets, tea is an art. According to an ancient Chinese legend, the first known cup of tea was brewed in 2737 B.C. For generations since, different cultures have developed their own unique tea-brewing rituals. With the Japanese in particular, elaborate tea ceremonies elevate the art of making tea to moments of pure Zen.

A continent away, 1840s English high society made the simple act of drinking afternoon tea the quintessential daily social event. To this day, ladies from around the world regularly gather for an hour of lively gossip, delicious snacks and of course, exquisite tea.

Enjoy taking a closer look at all of our delightful tea selections available within these pages. We're brewing something wonderful for you.
